OPPOSES 8-HOUR BILL.

D. M. Parry, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, has made public a statement bitterly attaching labor unions. Parry primarily attacks the eight-hour-law bill, but ineidentally arraigns union labor. The statement includes the following:

The National Association of Manufacturers is opposed to the terrible anti-in-junction bill now pending in Congress, which proposed law has almost destroy-ed the English manufacturer, as it is a legalization of the picket and the boy-cott. The attempt to foist such anar-chistic legislation upon the employes of this country will be resisted to the last. The National Association of Manufacturers is also unalterably opposed to the so-called eight-hour bill, fathered by Samuel Gompers. This bill, if it is put into effect, would be a radical and destructive assault upon the presperity of this country.

Such a bill would open the way of the blackmail of the heavy iron and steel and shipbuilding interests which are engaged in the manufacture of govern-

The labor unions, through their apprentice system, are driving thousands cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives school and the penitentiary. They have so reduced the number of skilled workmen that it would be impossible to find two shifts of men to carry on the

and the walking delegate. Hegives ophis manhood and admits to the world that he is incapable of making a success unless through the aid of the boycott and the picket.

Think of a government founded by Washington, Franklin, Adams and Jeffron handing its destinies over t. a crowd of men who have officially arrayed the mselves against the church, against the law, against the courts and everything else that goes to make possible the pursuit of life, liberty and happiness. The American people do not proposes that this nation shall be wrecked by any such tyrannical programme. The National Association of Manufacturers will do its part in attempting to regain the integrity of our institutions.

Its purpose is to hold back the waters of the Nile during the flood period, permitting their gradual use for irrigation during the rest of the year. In this way it is expected two add nearly 1,000,000 acres to land under cultivation; to enable large tracts to bear to crops a year, in-stead of one, and to add at least $12,-000,000 a year to the wealth of the country in increased products of cotton and sugar.

The dam is a mile and a quarter long, and will hold the water 347.6 feet above the level of the Mediterranean. The dam is pierced by 180 openings, each 23 feet high and 7 feet wide.
